Catch the Soul and Aaron Boone this Saturday at 7 PM as they take on the Columbus Destroyers on FSN-Ohio (you can catch the game live on the internet at www.wpen.com)

D-Boone gets in with the Soul!!!

Aaron Boone finally got in to play this week with the Philadelphia Soul as they routed the Kansas City Brigade in KC 54-24. It is only the fourth time that Philadelphia has won on the road in the history of the team.

Aaron was called up from the injured reserve list to replace Marcus Knight who was placed on waivers. According to Aaron,

"They didn't just cut anyone they cut our leading WR to get me on the field. JJ McKelvey will now be OS and I will rotate reps with Sean Scott. I should play plenty. Ron Jaworski came up to me again after practice today and told me congrats and that I deserve this opportunity, I'm very excited to get out there! "

Aaron got in on a few offensive sets, but there were no passes to him. However, he was a shining star on defense, something he has not done in a game since high school.

Aaron played most of the game at Jack-Back, a type of linebacker position in Arena Football. He got a blocked pass, 2 assisted tackles and 2 solo tackles, as well as two assisted tackles on kickoffs.

The Boone-o-Meter Stats after one week (beg. Mar 13, 2006):

Touchdowns:

0 touchdowns

Receiving:

0 receptions

Special Teams and Defense:

2 solo tackles, 4 assists, 1 pass block
