Boone breaks all-time Berlin TD record for receivers; Berlin clinches World Bowl berth

Aaron Boone led all receivers in the game as he caught 8 passes for 109 yards and a touchdown to help lead the Berlin Thunder to a 31-24 victory over the Frankfurt Galaxy. His 1st Quarter TD reception broke the all-time Berlin Thunder TD record for Wide Receivers. He now has 9 career TDs for the Thunder, 5 of them this season.

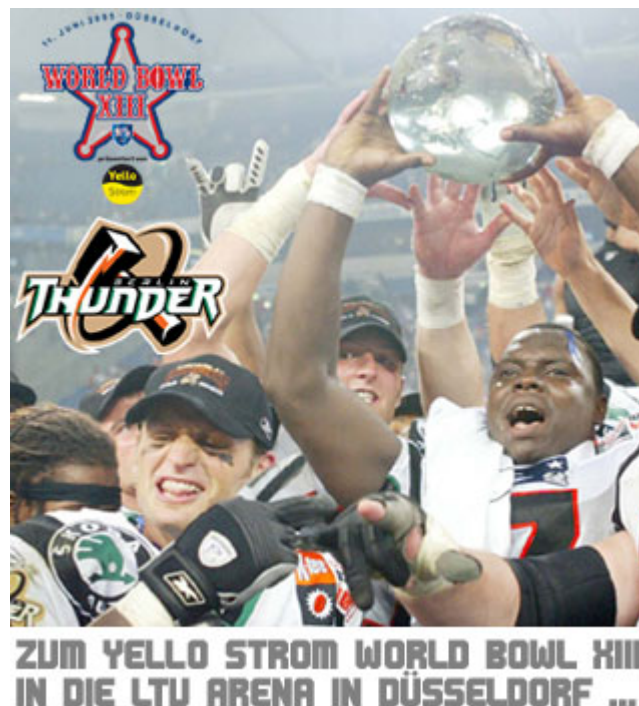

Aaron Boone catches his record breaking 9th career TD in the 1st Quarter

Aaron's first catch of the game was also Dave Ragone's first pass of the game. Ragone connected with Aaron for a 27 yard gain. His next catch came 9 plays later on an 8 yard pass from Ragone. This snag tied the game at 7-7. and was Aaron's record breaking TD. With his 9th career TD, the 'AirBoone Express' broke the old record of Jorge Heckenback (8 touchdowns in 6 seasons). On the next play, when Berlin kicked off, Aaron made the tackle, one of two special team's tackles for the game. Aaron's next catch was a 16 yard reception from Ragone with 43 seconds left in the 1st half. The AirBoone Express really took off at the beginning of the 4th Quarter. In a 14 play scoring drive that began on the Berlin 15 with 44 seconds left in the 3rd Quarter, there were 5 passes to Aaron, all complete. During this drive Aaron caught passes for 14 yards, 11 yards, 5 yards, 15 yards and 13 yards. Four of these catches were for first downs. For the game Aaron caught 8 passes--6 led to first downs and one was for a touchdown. He also had two special teams tackles.
