Aaron Boone returns - sixth World Bowl champion 2004 again in the team from Rick Lantz

Aaron Boone looks forward to one further NFLE season in Berlin

Wide Receiver Aaron Boone who was with the sixth World Bowl Championship team, returns to the Berlin Thunder's head coach Rick Lantz.

During the regular NFL Europe season, Aaron caught 13 passes for 221 yards and 4 touchdowns, He did this after joining the team by proving himself through excellent training. During the World Bowl game he caught the 16-yard pass for an important first down that led to the winning score.

Boone was sent to Berlin from the Chicago Bears. After he returned, he was waived shortly before the beginning of the NFL Season. He was contracted by the Carolina Panthers recently and immediately sent back to the Berlin Thunder.

Besides Aaron Boone five more World Bowl Champions 2004 are part of the Berlin Thunder team: Defensive Backs James Thornton, Jermaine Mays and Willie Ford as well als Offensive Linemen Ben Claxton and Dante Ellington.
