

2006 All-Rookie Team

Courtesy: Arena Football League Release: 05/16/2006

NEW YORK – The Orlando Predators and New York Dragons led all AFL teams with two players each on this year's All-Rookie Team the League announced today.

Orlando placed OL/DL GREG WHITE and WR/DB JAVARUS DUDLEY on the squad joining New York's OL/DL DELBERT COWSETTE and DS DAHNEL SINGFIELD.

San Jose SaberCats OS BEN NELSON, who played in just 11 games this season, posted 1,405 receiving yards, just six yards shy of the highest total by a rookie in AFL history.

Courtesy: G. Newman Lowrance/WireImage.com
Predators WR/DB Javarus Dudley

Los Angeles Avengers QB SONNY CUMBIE took over the starting reigns in Week 5 and threw 59 touchdowns on the season, the seventh-highest rookie total ever.

Following is the 2006 AFL All-Rookie Team:

POSITION	PLAYER, TEAM
Quarterback	Sonny Cumbie, Los Angeles
Fullback/Linebacker	Anthony Dunn, Colorado
Offensive/Defensive Lineman	Khreem Smith, Chicago
Offensive/Defensive Lineman	Greg White, Orlando
Offensive/Defensive Lineman	Delbert Cowsette, New York
Wide Receiver/Linebacker	Aaron Boone, Kansas City
Wide Receiver/Defensive Back	Javarus Dudley, Orlando
Offensive Specialist	Ben Nelson, San Jose
Defensive Specialist	Dahnel Singfield, New York
Defensive Specialist	Chris Brown, Georgia
Kicker	Todd France, Philadelphia

AFL NET VIDEO & AUDIO

Top 10 Plays of the Week
In Arena Football

click video to view

SUBSCRIBE | MORE INFO

AUCTIONS

Chris Jackson #81 bobblehead

Current Bid $15.00

More Auction Items >>

WALL TO WALL

AFL ACTION ON SIRIUS

GET IT TODAY >